David C. Tseng : LC Romanization Tables and Cataloging Policies before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised LC Romanization Tables and Cataloging Policies:

A practical one-volume book on cataloging that catalogers will find useful on a daily basis. This is a cumulated edition of collections of more than 100 major languages of the world, with valid romanization tables formerly issued by the Library of Congress.

About the AuthorSally C. Tseng is an internationally recognized leader and consultant in cataloging, serials, and CD ROM technology. She has been the Principal Serials Cataloger and Head of the Serials Cataloging and Maintenance Section at the University of California, Irvine Libraries. Her "LC Rule Interpretations of AACR2" (Scarecrow, 1981-1988) is used world wide as a handbook for catalogers, library faculty, and students. She has published frequently, been active in several library associations, and received career development awards.
