Excellent resource, entertaining activitiesBy Cindy KapplerAs the mother of four inquisitive and creative children, I am always looking for fun ways to celebrate holidays and special events with the kids. Memories in Moments has provided us with hours of entertaining, fun-filled activities. There is something for everyone and for every possible occasion. The reindeer cookies were a hit at Christmas; the generational photograph with a picture of Grandpa and Dad playing ball next to a picture of Dad and the kids playing ball is a real conversation piece; and the kids haven't stopped talking about the tooth fairy's trail of stardust. Each activity is coded so you know in a glance if it has to do with baking, decorating, games, gifts or simple gestures. Some of the activities take a few minutes, some can take hours to complete. There really is something for everyone. I highly recommend this book to anyone who has children - be it parents, grandma and grandpa, babysitters or teachers. Get your copy and let your creative juices flow!
